

7 SI guarantees transparent finances and their correct forwarding. SI ensures through its cooperation with its partners, that the project-related donations are used 100 percent for the described purpose. The permanent control of the correct execution of all financial matters is guaranteed by elected auditors. SI finances its own association work through membership fees and donations outside the project work. SI does not accept donations in cash or in kind, which are subject to conditions and which could impair its independence and decision-making ability.

8 SI lives through a large number of members, their individual diversity, activities and their competences. The regular membership fee as a permanent donation and the agreement with program and statutes are the only prerequisites for membership in SI. According to the abilities and potentials of each member – which might be of linguistic, technical, organizational or artistic kind – it can take on further responsibility and become active. Cooperation and membership is desired not only from individuals, but also from initiatives, organizations and companies. SI takes care that its independence remains preserved.

TOGETHER AND ORGANIZED: INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY AND HELP CAN MOVE A LOT AND HAS A FUTURE!

9 SI works democratically and organizes this mode of operation:

- > at the regularly held federal delegates meeting the members determine the framework of the work by means of resolutions. The federal representation of SI is bound to these resolutions.
- > The local groups decide on the basis of decisions of the national delegates' meeting which priorities they set in their work.
- > Both the national representation and the local and regional groups can develop their own initiatives.
- > As a link between federal work, local work and the individuals, the federal reps offer regular information and semiannual national meetings, to which all members are invited.
